FILOLOŠKI FAKULTET

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the international scientific conference Digital Libraries and Digital Archives, which will be held at the Faculty of Philology of the University of Belgrade and at the University of Novi Sad on April 7th and 8th, 2014.

The focus of this conference is to emphasize the exceptional role of digital libraries and digital archives and the great importance of ICT in modern society for science, culture and education and society as a whole, as well as to encourage development in this area. In the presence of distinguished researchers and general public some of the key topics, which make the necessary basis for the development of the information society, will be initiated: copyright; intellectual property protection; digitization of valuable books and unpublished scientific papers; importance of digitalization for the development of science, culture and education; standardization and quality control of digitization; distance learning ... The conference organizers are the Faculty of Philology of the University of Belgrade, the University of Novi Sad, the University Library "Svetozar Markovic", with the support of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development and the Ministry of Culture and Information. Digitization has launched important and sensitive questions in these fields, thus this conference is designed as a platform for dialogue and discussion on these very important issues.

By presenting the importance and benefits, as well as multiple advantages and various opportunities that ICT offer to culture, science and education - this conference will contribute to the popularization of the use of new technologies for the purposes of preservation, presentation and promotion of Serbian science, culture and heritage.

Our intention is to connect the most prominent and influential experts in these fields and to establish a dialogue between conference participants and general public. Therefore, we cordially invite you to put your knowledge and experience to use in order to develop topics that this conference will be dealing with and provide scientific and technical contribution to the development of information society in Serbia.

Conference languages are English and Serbian.

The application form can be downloaded from the following website:
www.fil.bg.ac.rs/digital2014/.

Participants can submit completed forms, by February 15, 2014, to the email address:
